Ayer's CherryPectoral

Should be kept constantly at hand, for use in emergencies of the household. Many a mother, startled in the night by the ominous sounds of Croup, finds the little sufferer, with red and swollen face, gasping for air. In such cases Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is invaluable. Mrs. Emma Gedney, 139 West 129 stt., New York, writes: "While in the country, last winter, my little boy, three pears old, was taken ill with Croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral was tried in small and frequent doses, and, in less than half an hour, the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the Pectoral saved my darling's life." Mrs. Chas. B. Landon, Gullford, Conn., writes: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Pa., writes: "I have two little boys, both of whom have been, from infrancy, subject to violent attacks of Croup. About six months ago we began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and it acts like a charm. In a few minutes after the child takes it, he breathes easily and rests well. Every mother ought to know what a blessing I have found in Ayer's Cherry Pectoral." Mrs. Win. C. Reid, Freebold, N. J., writes: "In our family, Ayer's medicines have been blessings for many searns. In cases trains, and the reasons for delays as stated publican.

Our selghbor, the Republican, does Postmaster Respess an injustice in the the above, whether intentionally or not, we, of course, are not prepared to say. In the first place the "regular distribution clerk" has not been ill. Mr. Newton Powell was ill for several days a week or so ago, but we are informed that he is not the regular distributing clerk and never has been since his connection with the office. Mr. Frank Mannen attends to that part of the business now, and has attended to it for some time. Moreover, if there has been any irregularity, it was probably caused by the tardiness of the Republican more than anything else. The postal regulations, we understand, an ont require the postansate to distribute to distribute the postansate to distribute of contreland. The postal regulations, we understand, on not require the postasaster to distribute any matter received later than 0 o'clock at night until after 6 o'clock the next morning. But Mr. Respess informs us that he has distributed the Republican small at most all hours of the night in order to accommodate the proprietors and that their papers might be sent out on the early morning train. If Mr. Respess should adhere strictly to the rules hereafter, the Republican would probably receive more complaints from its subscribers than if does now. And it alone would be at fault, just;as'it probably is at present and has been in the past.
